

Home> Blog> How to Write an Essay> How to Title an Essay

"To Kill a Mockingbird" by Harper Lee as the topic:

Title: "Innocence Shattered: Exploring Prejudice and Justice in 'To Kill a Mockingbird'"

In this example, the title captures the essence of the essay by highlighting the themes of prejudice and justice present in the book. "Innocence Shattered" suggests a central conflict within the story, while "Exploring Prejudice and Justice" provides a clear focus for the essay. The mention of the book's title, 'To Kill a Mockingbird', ensures that readers understand the specific work being analyzed.

Remember, when titling an essay about a book, it's essential to consider the themes, motifs, or central ideas conveyed in the text. The title should reflect these elements and provide a glimpse into the content of your essay.